Dear Frank,

Again another notable evening with the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick. As usual, the food and drink were excellent, but the friendships and conversations even better.

I thank you for your very thoughtful invitation and indeed it was a pleasure. I am sorry we mixed your folks up, but I am grateful that Mr. Burford was a last-minute cancellation. Next time you see him tell him I enjoyed his dinner.

PX Kelley was superb -- a delightful light touch and truly has the gift of the Irish humor. Whoever thought of inviting him should get a green ribbon. I am still chuckling over some of his comments and having known PX for so long, it added an extra dimension to my pleasure.

Thanks again. I hope all goes well with you. With best wishes for continued success.

Regards,

STAT

John N. McMahon

Dear Mr. McMahon:

On Friday evening, March 14, 1986, the Society of the Friendly Sons of St. Patrick will hold its 58th Annual Dinner. I am pleased to invite you to join us for this very special occasion.

This black-tie event will be highlighted by an evening of selected Irish entertainment with a promised minimum of lengthy oratory.

The Friendly Sons' dinner will be held at the Capital Hilton Hotel, 16th and K Streets, NW, at 7:30 p.m. Prior to dinner, I am hosting a private cocktail and buffet reception at 6:30 p.m. in the Pan American room of the hotel. The reception will also be open following dinner.

I hope that your schedule will permit you to join us.

Sincerely,

ILLEGIB

Frank
